Subject :- Service Books and Leave Accounts

Sir,
The Accountant General, Maharashtra, Bombay has brought to the notice of the State Govt. that a person calling himself to as V.R.K. Rao and posing as a Section Officer incharge of an Audit Party from the said office is sending information to Govt. offices about conducting of special audit of Service Books and Leave Accounts of the staff etc. The Accountant General has informed that his office has not deputed any such person for conducting the Special Audit of Service Books and Leave Accounts and that it is a case of impersonation. You are requested, therefore, to please apprise all the field level offices under your control and to report to the nearest Police Station if any intimation about the preposed visit of the party headed by the person named above is received by them or the party actually visits their office.

Yours faithfully,
Sd/- I.S. Ramrakhiani,
Deputy Secretary to Govt. of Maharashtra,
Finance Department.
