POINT

- (6) What is "Scheduled Tariff" referred to in para 12 of the Government Resolution?
- (7) Whether and if so in what circumstances is two times ordinary Daily Allowance admissible for Delhi or any other place outside the State?
- (8) Whether $\frac{1}{2}$ bus fare provided for in Bombay Civil Services Rule 414(II)-A is to be continued?
- (9) Whether the Bombay Civil Services Rule, 499 mentioned in the title of para 17 is correct?
- (10) How is Daily Allowance for self and family members to be regulated in the case of a transfer?

CLARIFICATION

"Scheduled Tariff" means the Government approved rates of lodging inclusive of boarding charged in the hotels approved by Government/local authorities.

The employee has an option to claim Daily Allowance at ordinary rate or at the rates admissible at the place of visit plus 25%. Two times ordinary Daily Allowance is the ceiling on Daily Allowance which would apply where Daily Allowance is claimed at the rates admissible at the place of visit plus 25%.

No. It stands withdrawn as the same was being allowed against incidental charges and payment of incidental charges has since been discontinued.

No. It is a printing error, and the rule should be read as 449.

Daily Allowance for self and member of family is to be regulated with reference to the period spent in journey and by applying the percentage scale of Daily Allowance prescribed in para 15 of the Government Resolution.
