It has come to the notice of Government that there are few stray cases in which Treasury Officers have taken action to stop payment of pension when the concerned pensioners have become liable for reconsideration of their pension amounts. In particular, such cases arise when a pensioner is convicted of an offence by a court of law.

It is hereby clarified that in such cases, the Treasury Officer should bring the fact about the case to the notice of the Accountant General, concerned and to the pension sanctioning authority. This in no way authorises the Treasury Officer to stop the payment of pension. The payment of pension could be stopped or modified only when specific orders are received in that behalf from the Accountant General or from the competent authority as mentioned under Rule 189 of the Bombay Civil Services Rules. It is also clarified that Treasury Officers should make the payment according to the existing pension payment orders and continue to do so till the orders for reduction/stoppage of pension are received by them. It will be the responsibility of the Administrative Departments to ensure that action under Rule 189 of the Bombay Civil
