Option to claim for self for the first independent journey or for the subsequent journey with family.

CR1978021701

GOVERNMENT OF MAHARASHTRA
Finance Department.

Resolution No. TRA-1777/C.R./914/SER-5.
Mantralaya, Bombay-400 032, Dated the 17th February 1978.

R E S O L U T I O N

Under the existing provisions of Transfer Travelling Allowance rules, a Government Servant can bring his family and personal kit, to the station of his new posting within a period of one year from the date of taking over the charge at the new headquarters and claim Travelling Allowance for the journey of his family members. However, for himself he is required to claim Travelling Allowance for the first journey performed for taking over the charge of the post at the new headquarters. As a result of this, it is likely that due to financial constraints the Government servant bringing his family to the new headquarters at a later date may find it necessary to travel at his own expense by the lowest class of accommodation, while his family members may travel in the higher entitled class. With a view to avoiding this inconvenience to Government servants, Government is pleased to direct that an option should be given to the Government servants transferred from one place to another in public interest, to claim the Travelling Allowance for themselves for the first journey undertaken at the time of taking over the charge, or for the journey they may undertake with their family members subsequently, even during leave or holidays. Entitlement to the class of accommodation should however be decided with reference to the facts on the date of transfer. This option shall not affect the entitlement to the joining time and joining time pay.

2. In cases where the Government servants exercise the option to prefer the transfer Travelling Allowance claim for the second journey performed by them along with the family during leave/holidays, the controlling officers will be competent to pass such claims in relaxation of the provisions of Bombay Civil Services Rule 520.

3. Formal amendment to Bombay Civil Services Rules will issue in due course.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Maharashtra,

S.G. PAI,
Deputy Secretary to Government.
