Under Government Resolution, Finance Department, No. PEN-1465/114/G 1/71/S-2, dated 9th May 1972 read with Government Resolution, Finance Department, No. CPA-1478/CR-327/SER-5, dated 17th April 1978, families of Government servants who die while in service are eligible for relief in the form of advance limited to 3 months' pay of the deceased Government servant or Rs.1200/- whichever is less, subject to the condition that the amount so sanctioned does not exceed the estimated payment due to the family. A doubt has arisen as to whether at the time of making such payments, the outstanding Government dues should also be taken into account.

2. The idea is that in the event of death of a Government servant, the family should get immediate relief, as provided in the scheme. In cases where the administrative authorities are in a position to assess the Government dues payable by the deceased Government servant, they may do so on the same day and, on assessment, if they find that the dues are more than the payment to be made to the family, they may not allow any immediate relief. In other cases, where assessment of the Government dues is not possible on the same day, the immediate relief should be allowed immediately on receipt of the intimation about death by the Head of Office. In such cases where the balance of Government dues, is later found to be in excess of the payment to be made by Government to the family, the amount of immediate relief to the extent it cannot be adjusted against payments admissible to the family may be written off.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Maharashtra,

A.D. GHODKE,
Under Secretary to Government,
Finance Department.
