Further, in Government Circular, Finance Department, No. TRW 1381/410/CR-81/ADM-9, dated 15th September 1981, it was directed that a pensioner on re-employment may continue to draw the amount of temporary increase and relief in pension along with the basic pension but the amount of temporary increase and relief in pension so paid should be deducted by the employer referred to above from the pensioners' emoluments payable on re-employment.
