Payment of Leave Salary
in Advance.

GOVERNMENT OF MAHARASHTRA
Finance Department.
Circular No. LVE-2477/CR-18.C/77/SER-9.
Mantralaya, Bombay-400 032, Dated 24th February 1978.

C I R C U L A R

Under Government Circular, Finance Department, No.SBR-1060/3700/XXVIII, dated the 29th December 1960, an advance not exceeding one month's leave salary has been allowed to Government servants proceeding on leave subject to certain conditions. According to the conditions (1) and (2) of the aforesaid Government Circular, grant of advance is permissible when the leave taken is for a period of not less than a month/30 days and the amount of advance is restricted to the net amount of leave salary for the first month of leave that is clearly admissible to the Government servant after deductions on account of income-tax, provident fund, house rent, repayment of advances etc. The advance of leave salary does not include allowances.

2. A question whether the advance of leave salary should also include allowances was under consideration, Government is now pleased to direct in amplification of the orders contained in the aforesaid Government Circular that the advance of leave salary should include only such allowances as are admissible during leave as well.

3. Government is further pleased to direct that orders sanctioning earned leave/half-pay leave to a Government servant should hereafter indicate the balance of such leave to his credit. In the case of gazetted Government servant, whose leave is certified by the Audit, the Audit should hereafter indicate the balance of earned leave/half-pay leave to the credit of the Government servant applying for such leave in its report on the admissibility of leave, to the leave sanctioning authority.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Maharashtra,

A.K. GOLATKAR,
Section Officer.
